Just One Break, Inc. (JOB)

A not-for-profit agency founded in 1947 by Eleanor Roosevelt, Orin Lehman, Howard Rusk and Bernard Baruch. JOB provides job placement services for people with disabilities by bringing them together with leading employers. JOB "levels the playing field" to help them become part of the competitive workplace and financially independent. The focus is on ability, not disability.

JOB Shining Star Awards

These awards recognize individuals and organizations whose achievements and/or support further the potential of people with disabilities, either by example or by supporting JOB in its mission of helping qualified applicants obtain sustainable employment.

The JOB Gala Chair and Gala Co-Chairs with the Board of Directors cordially invite you to attend the
